About the College Board

The College Board is a mission-driven not-for-profit organization that connects students to college success and opportunity. Founded in 1900, the College Board was created to expand access to higher education. Today, the membership association is made up of over 6,000 of the world's leading educational institutions and is dedicated to promoting excellence and equity in education. Each year, the College Board helps more than seven million students prepare for a successful transition to college through programs and services in college readiness and college success — including the SAT® and the Advanced Placement Program®. The organization also serves the education community through research and advocacy on behalf of students, educators, and schools.

Country Codes and Non-U.S. Regions

Refer to this list to complete Item 9b on your registration form, and to determine the Non-U.S. Region for your first-choice center in Item 20. The Non-U.S. Regional Fee must be entered in Item 24 on the form.

If your mailing address is in a country or region other than the United States or U.S. territories, enter the appropriate code. Do not use a country code if you have an APO or FPO number. If your country or region is not listed, fill in "999."

CENTERS REQUIRING A SPECIAL ADMINISTRATIVE FEE (item 24b on registration form)

Some international centers require a special administrative fee of $24. You will pay this with your registration. Check online for the most up-to-date list at sat.org/international.

Note that during registration processing, you may be reassigned to a center that requires a special administrative fee, in which case, you will not be billed for the fee.

International Test Centers and Codes

Check the back cover to see when tests are offered. You can tell if a test center is open on the test date you've selected by checking the following codes:

- Test center is open.
- L Test center is open and the SAT Language with Listening Subject Tests are also offered (November only).

Go to collegeboard.org/sat-codes for the latest information on test centers that may be available in your area. Also confirm test schedules for your area at sat.org/international.

The list printed here shows only international centers, so if you plan to test in the United States or a U.S. territory, go online to obtain a test center code.

College and Scholarship Program Codes (Item 21 on registration form)

Use the codes listed below to send official score reports to colleges and scholarship programs. Scores combined with your high school record, family financial situation, and/or academic achievements may be evaluated to determine college and scholarship program eligibility.

Sending scores is a great way to show your interest in specific universities. The admission staff value students who show interest in their institutions.

If you can't find the college scholarship program you are looking for in this list, look it up at collegeboard.org/satcodes.
